

ELEVATE YOUR SPEAKING SKILLS!

In this edition, we will explore some effective ways to enhance your speaking abilities. Whether you're preparing for a presentation, sitting for a speaking test, or aspire to be a better public speaker, these tips will prove invaluable.

You may be also thinking that bad grammar only happens in writing. Well, think again! Bad grammar happens in both the penned and spoken word, and it is a reflection on the speaker.

Remember! Improvement takes time and effort. When speaking, grammar plays an important role in Set achievable goals, be patient with yourself, and celebrate your progress along the way. With consistent practice and a positive mindset, you'll undoubtedly witness significant growth in your speaking skills.

Stay tuned for more exciting tips and resources in our upcoming newsletters. Should you have any specific questions or require further guidance, feel free to reach out.

Happy speaking!

1. PRACTICE REGULARLY

Like any skill, speaking improves with practice. Engage in activities such as joining a debate club, or simply engaging in conversations with friends to sharpen your speaking skills.

2. FOCUS ON CLARITY

Pay attention to your articulation and pronunciation. Speak slowly and enunciate your words clearly. Practice tongue twisters or read aloud to develop precision in your speech.

3. EXPAND YOUR VOCAB

Read extensively. Explore different genres and styles of writing to expose yourself to new words and expressions. Make a habit of noting down unfamiliar words and their meanings, and incorporate them into your everyday chat.

4. NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION

Pay attention to your body language, facial expressions, and gestures. Maintain a good posture, make eye contact, and use hand movements to emphasise key points.

5. LEARN FROM SPEAKERS

Like any skill, speaking improves with practice. Engage in activities such as joining a debate club, or simply engaging in conversations with friends to sharpen your speaking skills.