

Malaysia: My Nation

On August 31st we will come to be,
To celebrate our national day annually,
Commemorating our forebearers who paved the way,
Constructing the nation, we have today.

On this occasion we shall build our dreams,
Going against the unknown or the extreme,
Where all citizens, despite race or culture,
Join hand in hand to build a better future.

Under the Rukun Negara or the Negaraku,
Or the Jalur Gemilang's red, yellow, or blue,
After 66 years it's now our turn,
To ensure Malaysia's security and freedom.

Oh, fellow Malaysians!

Let's now rekindle our burning passions,
And bring our beloved nation to glory,
By restoring its wealth and prosperity.
